

COPS AND TOURISTS

TERRI AND ANTHONY WALKING DOWN THE STREET ... THEIR BEAT.
(AN AGGRAVATED TOURIST APPROACHES)

TOURIST

Hey, Officers, is this Columbus Circle?

TERRI

No.

TOURIST

Am I close?

TERRI

No.

TOURIST

Goddamnit. Where's the subway?

TERRI

Might be easier if you get back in a cab.

TOURIST

And lay out another twelve-fifty to end up where I don't want to be?

ANTHONY

We're just suggesting ...

TOURIST

This city's full o' people with suggestions and bad advice.

ANTHONY

(points) A block over you can catch the one or nine train uptown. You want Fifty-Ninth Street.

TOURIST

That's what I said ... (AS SHE CROSSES OUT)

TERRI

Gotta love the disgruntled TOURIST.

ANTHONY

Come on, Artie's is up on the next corner, we'll go for a stood.

TERRI

A stood?

ANTHONY

Yeah, stand around.

TERRI

Go for a stand.

ANTHONY

Huh?

TERRI

You would say stand, not stood, if we're standing there.

ANTHONY

No, we say stood. Like going for a walk. You go for a stood.

TERRI

Wouldn't you say WENT for a stood, like you already did it? Why do you say go for a stood?

ANTHONY

Because ... That's what we say. A stood. Sounds good.

HE CROSSES OFF...A BEAT...THEN TERRI FOLLOWS
